

URGES REPEAL OF TAX ON LEGACIES

Memorial to Congress Passed Both Houses at Madison Today.

STATE LIGHTING PLANT

Will Cost About $155,000 and the Annual Saving Will Be Over $11,000.

THREE NEW BILLS BY HALL

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—A memorial to congress urging the repeal of the war revenue tax on legacies was passed by both houses of the legislature today. The memorial takes the ground that the tax on inheritance properly belongs to the state.

The Lenroot bill providing for the referendum to the people of all franchises on petition of ten per cent, of the voters was advanced to its third reading in the assembly without debate. The McGill time check bill was killed in the assembly.

In the senate the estimate of Dean Johnson as to the cost of a lighting plant to light the capitol university buildings, historical library and state insane hospital was submitted. It fixes the cost of installing the plant at about $155,000 and estimates an annual saving of over eleven thousand dollars in operation over the present cost of lighting.

People May Pass on It.

The latest thing in the way of gossip concerning the primary election law is a suggestion that the measure be passed in its present form and then submitted to the people for a vote before making it operative.

Those who favor the bill insist that the people are demanding it and will resent its defeat, while those who oppose it say that the people are very much against it and will resent its passage. There are those who go so far as to assert that it becomes a law that it will prove a second Bennett law and defeat the republican party. Now come the advocates of the referendum plan with the proposition to let the people decide it for themselves.

After the Corn Shredder.

The bill introduced by Assemblyman Evans this morning to compel the use of the different cornshredders was called out by the many accidents during the past year through the use of the dangerous machines. With such machines as his bill contemplates Mr. Evans thinks the number of such accidents will be materially reduced. Mr. Evans is deeply interested in his bill for uniform text books. He thinks that it would greatly reduce the cost of the books.

THREE NEW BILLS BY HALL

He Proposes to Release Railway Reorganization Acts of 1893.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—Assemblyman A. R. Hall, the father of the anti-pass law and one of the leaders in the taxation reform movement, today introduced three bills which will be among the most important and probably among the most bitterly contested of the session.

The bills repeal the reorganization acts of 1893, under which the Wisconsin Central re-organized. Under those acts—there were three of them—the Wisconsin Central issued bonds and stock to more than twice the amount of the value of the road as fixed by the state tax commission, and it is said that any railway of the state can issue any amount of fictitious bonds under those acts. Up to 1893 the issue of such bonds was prohibited by statute, but the acts of 1893 repealed the then existing law and allowed what is said to be unlimited issues of bonds. The Hall bills that went in today repeal the acts of 1893 and place the railways under the same restrictions as before 1893.

An amendment to the constitution was proposed in the lower house yesterday by Mr. Norton of Milwaukee for the creation of a state board of pardons, to exercise the pardoning power at present exercised by the governor. The amendment is backed by a long petition. There has been an agitation for years in this state for some curb on the pardoning power of the governor, and charges of its abuse have been made.

Discuss Osteopathy.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—The assembly and senate committees on judiciary yesterday afternoon heard arguments on the bill to recognize osteopathy by creating a state board to examine and license all candidates for the privilege of practicing that branch of medicine in the state. The bill was considered of such importance that the committees met together to hear the discussion. Talks were made for the bill by Dr. J. M. Littlejohn of Chicago, president of the American college of osteopathy, Attorney Charles Quarles of Milwaukee, Dr. Carl T. McConnell of Chicago and J. E. McConnell of La Crosse.

Those who spoke against the measure were Dr. J. R. Curran of the State Board of medical examiners, Dr. C. E. Seaman of Milwaukee and Dr. J. V. Stevens of Jefferson.

STRANGE STORY OF A LA CROSSE MAN

Claims Catholic Hospital and Convent Property—Mysterious Parent-age of John Hall.

La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 7.—A remarkable story of mysterious parentage and involving the title to the St. Francis hospital and St. Rose de Vitreos convent in this city, and property in Dubuque, Ashland and Sparta, Wis., worth $500,000, has developed in this city. Michael Leinfelder, distributing clerk in the postoffice nearly 40 years old, was informed recently that the late Joseph Anthony Leinfelder was not his father, but an uncle, and that his, Michael's, true name is John Hall.

He was also informed that Mrs. Hall, whom he always supposed was his aunt and who became Sister Antonia in the local convent, was his mother and that she built the convent and hospital and also owned property in the other cities named, which other people now claim but which rightfully belongs to Leinfelder or Hall.

Sister Antonia died very suddenly, leaving no will. The real estate which she owned in several cities throughout the northwest is now claimed by Michael Leinfelder of John Hall he being her sole surviving heir, and legal proceedings for the recovery of the same will be commenced very soon.

BEEKEEPERS NAME OFFICERS.

W. E. France of Plattville Chosen
President of Association.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—The state Beekeepers' association yesterday elected the following officers: President, N. E. France of Plattville; vice president, Jacob Hoffman of Monroe; secretary, Ada Pickard of Richland Center; treasurer, H. Lathrop of Monroe. The association appointed a committee to go before the legislature and oppose a bill for the tax of $1 on every hive transferred from one county to another.

Earl of Galloway Dead.

London, Feb. 7.—The earl of Galloway died this morning aged sixty-seven.

TOPEKA SALOON JOINTS KEPT OPEN

Presence of Mrs. Carrie Nation and Her Efforts and Advice Are All Useless.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 7.—Chief of Police Stahl and Sheriff Cook went around to the keepers of the joints and insisted that they close until the Nation excitement blew over. The jointists promised, but now they are as wide open as ever. Mrs. Nation announces that she has some plans for future action which will make the jointists remember that she is still in the city, but she does not divulge them. Mrs. Nation spent most of the day in visiting the different jails of the city, and praying and talking with the inmates. The "drunk" prisoners were the objects of her especial solicitude, and she talked to them in a motherly fashion. Some of them wept while she exhorted them to live a better life, and many of them promised that in the future they would not drink liquor. The Home Defenders, which is the organization formed by Mrs. Nation, held another secret meeting, to which no one but members with the password was admitted. Mrs. Carrie Nation and her band of saloon-destructors will go to Chicago on next Tuesday and that night they will appear at the Auditorium. Mrs. Nation will carry her historical hatchet on the platform, and the band will be arrayed as they were when the crusade started at Enterprise, Kan. She will tell of her purposes when she started out to destroy by force the saloons of her state, and what she intends to do. From Chicago the band will at once return home to resume the work of destruction.

BADGER CONGRESSMEN CONSIDER PROPOSED PRIMARY ELECTION LAW

They Say That Republican Party is Pledged to Some Kind of Action—Cooper Thinks the Objections Can Be Overcome.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The Wisconsin delegation held a meeting yesterday for the purpose of considering in detail the Primary Election bill pending in the Wisconsin legislature. The meeting was attended by Senators Quarles, and all of the members of the house delegation. Although in the city Senator Spooner did not attend.

Some Objections Raised.

The principal objections raised were in respect to the system for the nominations of state officers, the making of platforms by candidates after they are nominated and requiring members of the proposed state central committee to visit Madison for the purpose of canvassing the election returns. In regard to the effect of the proposed law upon elections in congressional districts, the point was raised that sufficient freedom is not given to the selection of congressional campaign committees.

Representative Cooper believes that the measure can be adjusted in such a way as to give satisfaction. Mr. Cooper, when in the state senate, was the author of the original law in Wisconsin giving the Australian ballot system to the state, and he made the point today that objections similar to those now raised against the primary election law were offered at that time against the adoption of the secret election ballot system. He believes that the most of the objections made to the pending bill can be overcome and a system of primary elections adopted which will be satisfactory to the people.

MAY SWING HER AX IN CITY OF CHICAGO

Mrs. Carrie Nation Will Be in Windy
City Next Week, with Her Women Aids.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Carrie Nation is about to visit Chicago. She will be here under the auspices of the Press Club on Tuesday afternoon, and in the evening will deliver a lecture in the auditorium theatre about her crusade against the saloons.

At this meeting she will also announce her future program, including a declaration concerning the manner in which she proposes to pass the balance of her stay in Chicago, though with the latter portion of her visit the Press Club has nothing to do. Indeed the members of the entertainment committee of that body announce emphatically that their connection with Mrs. Nation's pilgrimage to the city ceases as soon as the meeting is over, and that they have been given no intimation of her engagements for the next day.

LIVE STOCK BREEDERS

Wisconsin Association Was Organized in Madison Yesterday and Officers Elected.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—The Wisconsin Live Stock Breeder's association was organized here today, and will hold annual meetings. The following officers were elected: President, Geo. McKerrrow of Sussex; secretary, F. W. Harding of Waukesha; treasurer, Charles L. Hill of Rosedale. In place of a vice president the following committee was elected: J. Q. Emery of Albion, W. L. Carley of Madison and George Wylie of Leeds. Thirty-two members joined the association tonight.

FATALITIES REACH OVER FIVE HUNDRED

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—It is feared that the fatalities in the great petroleum fire at Baku will reach into the hundreds. At the present time it is five hundred. Full reports have not yet been received.

IN JAIL FOR KIDNAPING.

A. M. Robinette Under Arrest at Seattle
Wash.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 7.—A. M. Robinette kidnaped a 4-year-old boy, of which he claimed to be the father, while its mother was attending her wedding ceremony. Upon her return home the mother, who was formerly Mrs. Clara Kavanaugh, found a note from Robinette, in which he stated that he had kidnaped the child and would do it bodily harm unless she came for it in person and free from matrimonial entanglements.

The letter was placed in the hands of the police, who arrested Robinette. The latter attempted to shoot A. O. Colburn, who married the woman, when he was pointed out to the arresting officer, but was seized before the weapon was discharged.

At the station Robinette claimed that he had murdered the child, but the police place little credence in this statement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 7.—The limited collided with the rear of the Cleveland express in the yard at Allegheny at seven this morning. D. W. Heck and Henry Lublang were injured.

BAND APES MRS. NATION.

Women Followers of "Dr." Dowle Raid
Five Drug Stores.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Crying out that drugs were the agents of the devil, a half-dozen women followers of Dowle adopted the tactics of Mrs. Carrie Nation and wrecked a number of drug stores in this city. In some instances there were hand-to-hand fights with the druggists. Armed as they were with pitchforks, umbrellas and canes, the women came out the victors in nearly every encounter, and succeeded in destroying property wherever they went. Drug stores visited by the crusaders and the damages were: Charles G. Poucek, 16th street and Center avenue; three rows of bottles containing drugs knocked from the shelves and destroyed; damage $50; women chased from the drug store by a clerk with a bucket of water. B. Lowenthal, 12th and Robey streets; drugs knocked from the shelves; damage $25; crusaders forced from the drug store at the point of a revolver in the hands of the proprietor. Leo L. Mrazek, Ashland avenue and 18th street; several bottles broken; damage nominal. Herman Liberman, 515 Halsted street; women driven out after a small damage had been done. O. Shapiro, 12th and Jefferson streets; one bottle and an electric-light globe broken. The women went in a well-organized band. They were mostly middle aged and well dressed. Four of them wore long automobile coats, under which they carried their implements of destruction while in the street. One woman was dressed in a flaming red golf coat, and another wore a long sealskin jacket. On leaving a drug store they invariably sang "Praised Be the Lord" or "Zion Forever." No arrests were made.

GALACTASE A FACTOR

A Discovery Which Will Revolutionize the Manufacture of Cheese—Bacteria Cure Not Needed.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—Supt. Henry of the United States agricultural experiment station today announced that Profs. Babcock and Russell of that department had made a discovery which would revolutionize cheese-making. Their discovery is that bacteria have nothing to do with cheese curing, but that a fluid called galactase, which is secreted with the milk by the cow cures the cheese, and that cheese cures better at low temperatures than at medium temperatures.

The cheese making world has always believed that medium temperatures were necessary for the proper curing of cheese, because the bacteria which were considered necessary for the proper curing, would not live at low temperatures. The discoverers of galactase declare that the bacteria are unnecessary and if anything harmful, and that a low temperature would kill them and at the same time allow the galactase to do its better work.

REPORT 14 CASES OF THE SMALL POX

Dodgeville Has Quarantined Against the Village of Ridgeway—Police Guarding All Points.

Dodgeville, Feb. 7.—It is reported that there are fourteen cases of small pox in the village of Ridgeway, on the Northwestern road. The board of health of this city, issued an order this morning forbidding all residents of that village from entering this city. The police are guarding all the entrances to the city, and arresting all residents of the village if they attempt to come here.

Church Factions in a Row.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 7.—Rival factions of the colored baptist church in Osage City, Kas., are at war, and as a result a partly finished church is in ruins. Some time ago some of the members left the church and immediately started to build another place of worship. This did not suit the other members, and with axes and hatchets they demolished the building. The carpenters arrived while the work of destruction was going on and many of the negroes were seriously hurt.

QUEEN BECOMES A BRIDE TODAY

Wilhelmina and the Duke
Henry of Mecklenburg United in Marriage.

CIVIL CEREMONY FIRST

All Holland Celebrating Over Outcome of the Royal Love Match.

HER GOWNS ARE MAGNIFICENT

The Hague, Feb. 7.—Queen Wilhelmina was married shortly after twelve o'clock to Duke Henry of Mecklenburg Schwerin, and both before and after the ceremony the royal couple passed the people in open carriages accompanied by the usual accessories of military and official pomp.

Arches of Roses.

The line of march went underneath seas of flags under arches of cedar adorned with ribbons of roses. Every house top and window along the way was full to overflowing for the pageant and the temporary stands swathed with bunting, occupied all of the available spaces that commanded the show. Large numbers of mounted and unmounted police and troops drawn from every part of Holland pitted their strength against the masses of spectators who struggled for positions in the streets.

There were Two Ceremonies. The law of Holland requires that the marriage should be solemnized by the civic authorities, and therefore Wilhelmina and Duke Henry were first married by the minister of justice and later at a religious service under the eyes of a vast assemblage of privileged persons from many different parts of the world. The floral and other decorations of the church are extremely rich.

Workmen Cheer the Queen.

Fifty workmen's societies, with bands of music and five triumphal cars marched past the palace in honor of the marriage of Queen Wilhelmina. The queen and her husband, Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, remained on the balcony in spite of the severe cold. They were both acclaimed. Enormous crowds welcomed the young couple and the queen mother during their drive.

Trousseau of the Queen.

The queen's wedding gown woven of the finest silver tissue, was embroidered at the school of Art Needlework in Amsterdam, and was afterward made by Nicoud of Paris. It is ornamented with silver threaded seed pearls. The robe and train are lined with rich white silk. The bodice which is plain and cut low is trimmed

ENGLAND TO RUSH TROOPS TO AFRICA

The British War Office Has Decided to Send 30,000
More Mounted Men at Once.

London, Feb. 7.—Thirty thousand more British troops are to be poured into South Africa. In a war office bulletin issued last night it is announced that the government has decided to heavily re-enforce Lord Kitchener.

The fresh fighting men, who will be exclusively mounted troops, include 10,000 imperial yeomanry, 8,000 of Col. Baden-Powell's South African mounted constabulary, 5,000 new colonial recruits and 7,000 mixed grade of cavalry and mounted infantry.

Not since the dark days following Stormberg and Colenso, fifteen months ago, has the South African campaign called out such an army as is now proposed to send to Lord Kitchener. This morning's papers view the waroffice's tardy energy with deep satisfaction. Pro-Boer organs like the Daily News say that is a certain sign that the end of the bitter conflict is still far off.

Unofficial advices say that the Boers have cut the Delagoa railway in Portuguese territory some twenty miles across the frontier. Under the terms of England's late alliance with Portugal, according to the Daily Mail, the full support of Lord Kitchener's army will be given to drive the Boer invaders from King Charles' territory.

TERM ENDED WITH FULL DRESS PARADE

Prof. Kehl's Young Pupils Acquit Themselves Gracefully—A Pretty Spectacle.

The final party of Prof. Kehl's dancing class was given last evening at the East Side Odd Fellows' hall. The hall presented a pretty picture with the little ladies in handsome gowns and the young men in their best in attendance upon them.

The classes have been unusually successful during the season and have numbered about one hundred pupils. Their dancing last evening reflected great credit upon their instructor.

The grand march was led by Master Earl Kelly and Miss Edna Murdock, who acquitted themselves gracefully as they led the class through the different figures.

The costumes were exceedingly pretty, the great majority of the little girls being in pink, blue or white. Many of the gowns were of thin gauzy material made up with lace, ribbon and summer accessories.

The spectators were numerous enough to occupy nearly all of the seats while the children were dancing. The party began at eight and ended between ten and eleven.

BURR OAK.

Burr Oak, Feb. 7.—The worst storm of the season visited Burr Oak yesterday making the roads almost impassable in places.

Mrs. Edwards of Edgerton, who is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Brace, is slowly improving from her long illness.

One of the young ladies of this place went for a cutter ride a few evenings ago and failed to see a large stone near the drive way. Result: A tip over, somewhat disfigured face, three teeth loosened and her escort dragged over a field of corn stubble heroically clinging to the lines and trying to stop the horse.

Many of the parents in our school district received the resignation of the teacher with disappointment, feeling that an injustice had been done her through the maliciousness of boys old enough to be young men, and an honor to their district, instead of young pugilists. However school opened Monday with Miss Lynch of Janesville in charge.

Mr. Bennett of Janesville has finished corn shredding in the neighborhood and now the song of the buzzsaw is heard.

Mr. Thomas Rabyor will remain another year on the farm he now occupies, having rented the same from John Tierney.

Miss Anna Oleson of Janesville spent last week at the home of Mrs. Charles Heck of East Burr Oak.

James Murwin sold his crop of tobacco to George Rumrill last week.

James Thompson has returned from a business trip to Dakota.

John Tierney has returned from Iowa where he has spent several months visiting his mother.

Burr Oak has lost its spook since Thomas Flaherty's big dog, Nero, died.

FULTON.

Fulton, Feb. 7.—The next number on our lecture course will be given by Rev. Updike. His theme will pertain to the "Twentieth Century" instead of "The Philosophy of Humor" as was previously announced.

Miss Mabel Hopkins will give an entertainment in the church on the evening of Feb. 28 under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E.

There will be no services here on Sunday evening of this week as the Edgerton society has invited our Y. P. S. C. E. to join with them in a union meeting.

Carl O'Berg and family of Stoughton were visitors at his brother's, John O'Berg's on Sunday.

Georgia and Lelah Gove of Janesville visited at Geo. Lyntz's over Sunday.

Mrs. E. N. Jessup is visiting her daughter in Black Earth.

Mrs. H. W. Lee spent the latter part of last week with her parents in Janesville.

Endowment for University.

Recently Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia published a letter appealing for subscriptions to an endowment fund for Washington and Lee university. In response to the appeal a man in New York has offered $2,000 on condition that $50,000 be raised, and $5,000 if $100,000 be raised.

Detroit Abandons Standard Time.

The city of Detroit, Mich., tried standard time for just one week. Then the common council voted to abandon it and return to local time, regardless of railroad timetables.

"A Brass Monkey."

Charles E. Hoyt's noted farce comedy, "A Brass Monkey," which will be the attraction at the Myers Grand next Monday evening has been called furiously funny. This expression most happily expresses its merit, from the rising to the final falling of the curtain there is not a dull moment in it. Laugh follows laugh so rapidly and the entire action is so spirited that the audience laughs away for three hours and then wonders why the piece ends so quickly. A glance at a watch tells the story. They have been really entertained.

Baptist Ordination Service.

Dr. H. A. Palmer, J. A. Skinner and Fred P. Gove were in Orfordville yesterday as delegates from the Janesville district to the ordination of Rev. E. B. Gulick as pastor of the Baptist church. The ceremony was performed before a large audience and the delegates of the different districts. Rev. W. D. Hulbert of the Wauwatosa state mission acted as moderator and the ordination sermon was preached by Rev. C. J. Everett of Wauwatosa, district missionary. Nineteen delegates representing ten churches were present at the ceremony.

High School Basket Ball.

Tomorrow evening two games of basket ball will take place at the high school gymnasium. The program for the evening includes a game between two teams of girls and one between two teams of boys. One team both of the boys and girls will be composed of the scholars and their opponents will be composed of the alumni of the school. The games bid fair to be exceedingly interesting and no doubt a full house will witness the contest.

Talk on China Tonight.

Pastor Denison went to Chicago this morning, but will return for the services this evening.

CUPID AND THE BOXERS.

Miss Condit-Smith Resisted One, but Yielded to the Other.

After traveling around the world, enduring the horrors of the siege of Peking and living for many days in the momentary fear of death, it has been the happy lot of Miss Mary Condit-Smith to return safe and sound to her native country. Not alone that, but on Feb. 12 Miss Condit-Smith will become the happy bride of her childhood sweetheart. Surely this is a pleasant ending to a tale replete with adventures and horrors.

Miss Condit-Smith is a beautiful young woman of 21 and has been prominent in the society world of Washington for about two years. She is a niece of the late Justice Field of the United States supreme court. Somewhat over a year ago she left for Yokohama to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Keyes. From that place she went to Peking as a guest of the American legation there, little dreaming of the experiences in store for her.

During the siege of Peking Miss Condit-Smith bore her full share of the sufferings of the beleaguered garrison and performed her part of the work. She kept a most interesting diary of the momentous events that occurred. It includes a lively description of the many tragic and few humorous incidents of the siege. The diary is shortly to be published in book form.

Lieutenant Richard S. Hooker, Miss Condit-Smith's fiance, is a tall, handsome officer of the marine corps. He is three years older than his bride and is a grandson of Senator Stewart of Nevada. He is a college graduate and served with credit in the Spanish war.

A WOMAN LEGISLATOR.

The Only Member of Colorado's House of Representatives.

Mrs. Evangeline Hartz, the only woman elected last fall to the Colorado house of representatives, is the tenth woman to be chosen to that body since equal suffrage was granted seven years ago. She is now about to enter upon her second term.

Mrs. Hartz is the daughter of a Boston woman, and her father is a descendant of the famous Clay family. She was educated to be a teacher, but she preferred politics. She was married when quite young to John Hartz, and they made their home in Charlotte, N. C., for three years, moving to Colorado in 1878. They have two sons.

Mrs. Hartz took an active part in Denver politics. In 1896 she was nominated for the Eleventh general assembly.

bly and elected. The leading bill introduced by her was that establishing a state board of arbitration. She had other bills, but this one and the bill providing that meetings of the school boards should be public were the only ones that passed. Mrs. Hartz hopes to get an amendment to her arbitration law making it compulsory. She has been made chairman of the committee on enrollment and a member of the committees on appropriations and expenditures, education, state institutions, temperance and public health.

She is described as an earnest, conscientious woman. The labor people expect her to mother many of their bills. Four years ago she received a vote of thanks of 5,000 railroad employees for assisting in the passage of a labor bill.

Inconsistency of Frequent Laws.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The opinion of the state press so far as expressed on the primary election law, is divided. Some of the papers are ardent advocates of the measure and others are as earnestly opposed to it.

The opposition expressed is not as much against the bill as against the principle. It is extremely doubtful if any bill could have been drafted to meet with the supposed requirements any better than the Stevens' bill. The measure is necessarily theoretical, because it has never been reduced to practice. Mr. Stevens is a bright and intelligent young man, inspired by lofty ideals. He possesses a thorough knowledge of text book political economy, backed by limited observation of government in parts of the Old world, and re-inforced by much careful thought and study. His honesty of conviction, or his ability, are not questionable, for both command respect and commendation. But Mr. Stevens lacks the experience in dealing with political questions, that many men possess, who do not agree with his reform measure. Carried to its final conclusion it looks to this class of opposition like the disorganizing of parties, and in the end defeat of the republican party in the state. It is easy to detect between the lines that the democratic press of the state are not opposing the measure to any marked degree. This class of papers recognize the fact that it is a republican measure, adopted by a convention whose methods the law condemns, and if enacted becomes effective without consulting the wishes of the people. The republican party will be held responsible for it in the court of public opinion and while the democratic press scent victory in the verdict, many good republicans fear defeat from the same cause.

Where there is so much doubt and conflict in the minds of good men concerning a measure of doubtful expediency, it would seem that conservative judgment would suggest to let the voters decide whether in their judgment such a law is needed.

The republican party is in the lead today, and if wisely handled will continue to administer government in Wisconsin at least for years to come. If this is done the party organization must be kept intact.

Parties, like churches and societies, never run themselves. Their success depends upon the intelligent management of a few leading spirits.

Government by the people reaches its best estate, when intelligently managed by the men the people elect to places of trust and responsibility. The same rule applies to corporations where financial interests are involved. In either case, where radical changes are contemplated, the stockholders or the people have a right to be consulted, and they have a right to criticize if ignored.

The primary law may be the very best kind of legislation for the state, and it might carry by a large majority before the people, but isn't it better to ask for public endorsement in advance than to take the chances of public censure if it should prove a failure?

The men and papers that take the conservative view, are not actuated by a desire to oppose the measure because Governor La Follette recommends it. They have honest convictions on the subject and believe that the best interests of the republican party will be conserved by submitting the question to the people before enacting it into a law.

STATE BOARDS.
The demand for state boards was never more pronounced than at the present time, and the legislature is flooded with bills, asking for protective legislation, through some sort of a board of examiners.

The latest is a call for a board of dancing masters, to protect the dear public from fraud in the art of tripping the light fantastic. This is a very important measure, and public health and morals demand early attention. The man or woman who is learning to dance, is entitled to all the protection that the state can furnish, as under the most favorable circumstances some of them will "toe in" when they ought to "toe out." By all means, let us have the board.

The barbers' board is also important. When schools are turning out machine made barbers in six weeks, from the raw material, it is time that the public called a halt. The barber should be required to acquire his art by easy stages and graduate unconsciously, rather than to blossom out full fledged with a diploma, to roam over the country, and practice on a confiding public, at his own sweet will. The principle is wrong.

There are a lot of neglected industries that should be protected by state boards. The druggists and doctors are fairly well surrounded with a high board fence, and the barbers and dancing masters will doubtless succeed in finding an enclosure, but there is absolutely no protection for lawyers, preachers or teachers. They are thrown out on an unfriendly world to shift for themselves. And the dry goods and clothing men, the grocers and bakers and butchers and blacksmiths and a long list of trades people, to say nothing about the farmers, are all subject to sharp and designing competition, without a state board to confer license or any other influence to protect them. There is some thing radically wrong about the whole arrangement.

Some enterprising and long sighted legislator can make his name famous, and cause his memory to be kept green for generations, by introducing a bill providing for a clearing house for the benefit of all people who desire to live in the state. The examination should be rigid, and results would be most gratifying. In a short twelve months every profession and calling would be equipped with artists and artisans of high order, and the dear public would be protected from frauds of every description, and competition would be a thing of the past.

Kansas adopted this scheme several years ago, and is succeeding beyond her most sanguine expectations. She is having a little trouble just now but when Mrs. Nation gets fully under way the state will be a perfect paradise.

Nebraska has also had considerable experience along this line. She has succeeded in weeding out her population but what she has left are the salt of the earth.

A clearing house is what Wisconsin needs. Our professions and industries, as well as the public, should be protected. State boards are all right but they are cumbersome, and a central station located at the capitol would transact the business intelligently and more economically. Perhaps the land department could find time to look after the business.

THE INDEPENDENT VOTE.

The argument used against the proposed primary law on the ground of barring the independent voter, while perhaps valid, is not of great importance.

There are of course years when a ticket is bolted by a large class of voters, not because of the men on the ticket, but because the principles advanced by the party are not endorsed. This happened in the national and state campaign in 1896 and 1900, but the landslide vote hardly be called an independent vote. The men who deserted Bryanism on the free silver issue, are most of them democrats today, and will continue to be.

The independent voter, as generally interpreted, is the man who is too good for his party, but is always looking for the best man. Usually he is found in the ranks of the civic federation, or modern reformer. There was a time when he was called a mugwump, and he has never been considered dangerous. His vote, like the prohibitionist, is usually wasted, and his influence in politics is not alarming.

If the primary law should result in disfranchising this vote entirely, there would be less kickers, and neither party would suffer serious loss. When a man becomes so pure that he leans backward instead of forward, he is too good for either the church or his party, and is ripe for translation.

The republican party has lost from its ranks more of this class of voters than the democrats, because it has connected with it more long haired theorists, and violent reformers. They should be permitted to flock by them, selves until they discover that reforms are only effected at short range. The art of pulling humanity up has never succeeded. Better stay with the boys and lift.

If the primary law will encourage party loyalty it is a redeeming feature that will offset some of the objections.

Governor La Follette and Governor Yates are to be congratulated on saving the states of Wisconsin and Illinois from the disgrace of a prize fight. The sporting fraternity will be obliged to seek more congenial soil. Kansas is so busy just at present looking after disturbances, that a prize fight might relieve the monotony.

Sarah Bernhardt believes "genius is the capacity for taking pains," and she wears her stage costumes off the stage as much as possible so as to really become the character she represents.

The great majority of people of the Philippines are ready for peace but do not dare to openly express themselves for fear of assassination which is sure to follow any assistance on their part towards the United States.

To Americans these spasmodic efforts of Europeans to circumvent our energy and enterprise are amusing.

Some congressmen have the grip, some have lost it and some never had it.

We wonder who Mr. Bryan means by his editorial, "We."

MARZLUFF & CO.
WANT MORE ROOM

Madison and Beloit After the Shoe Concern That Intends to Leave Janesville.

Madison is now in the field to secure the Marzluff & Co. factory. Representatives from that city were here yesterday looking over the plant and talking with the proprietors as to what it would be necessary to do in order to get the factory to locate in Madison.

Cities outside of Janesville understand the value of a plant like the Marzluff & Co. factory and want to get it. Janesville in its usual way does not seem to care whether the factory leaves or not.

It is to Marzluff & Co's interest to move if they can get what they want and they certainly intend to. There are plenty of available sites in this city where a building such as Marzluff & Co. require could be erected.

In most of the cases the property is now lying idle and bringing in no income. Marzluff & Co. will take a long lease of the building if the conditions are what they ask.

Beloit After the Shoe Factory

Beloit is making an effort for the Marzluff Shoe factory. Mr. Marzluff has made the Beloiters a proposition. The Janesville Shoe factory requires a building four stories high, built either of stone or brick, somewhere in the downtown district of Beloit. In dimensions it must be near 60 x 120 with basement. If the enterprising citizens of that city will construct such a building Mr. Marzluff is willing to pay a fair rental for it and take a long lease.

PUSH THE WORK OF RAISING THE BONUS

SOME OF CANNING FACTORY
$5,000 STILL UNCOLLECTED.

The Committee in Charge Hope to Conclude The Work by the End of This Week in Order That the Pro-motors Can Close Contracts for Machinery and Acreage.

The work of raising the balance of the $5,000 bonus and the extra amount necessary to purchase a site for the canning factory was taken up today by the members of the mid-winter fair committee who have the matter in charge.

They are determined to get the matter in such shape that a definite answer can be given Messrs. Marsh and Hohenadel by the end of the week.
It is absolutely necessary that this be done in order that the contracts for machinery and acreage can be closed at once.

The business men of the city are in earnest in this matter and have thoroughly investigated every phase of the subject and believe that an increase of trade throughout the city will more than compensate the merchants for the amount of money that have been subscribed to get the plant.

It is certain that an institution that employs the number of hands the proposed plant will, and brings as many farmers to the city as this must if they get the required acreage, cannot but help to put a lot of money in circulation.

It will also add another establishment to our growing list of factories and every new one that is added to the list helps to bring others. So give the committee that are giving up their time to the best interests of the city, a subscription even if it is small. It all helps to bring the sum-up to what is required.

There are a great many people in the city whom the committee in charge of the subscription paper for the canning factory cannot get around to see. It would help matters very much if anyone that is inclined to help the matter along by subscribing to the fund would call at the Bower City bank and sign the paper for the amount they are willing to give.

SECURING OPTIONS FOR RIGHT OF WAY

Promoter Powers, of the Janesville, Be-loft and Rockford Electric Line
In the City Today.

Supervisor A. C. Powers is busily engaged in securing options on the land along the proposed right of way of the new electric road to be built between this city and Beloit. He has secured a number of options and was in the city today to see Brown Bros. and secured an option on their farm about five miles south of town.
It is the purpose of the road to secure a strip of land two rods wide along the highway for their road bed.
They will then move the fences back and make the road six rods wide, two rods of which is to be the property of the electric line.

The company's representatives have already been over the ground and have chosen the route that they will follow. They intend following the above road to what is known as the Eliza Young farm in the southwest corner of township 25, in the town of Rock, and will then follow the road in a northeasterly direction to the Prairie road which they will follow to Janesville, entering the city at Spring Brook and being in a position to connect with the Janesville electric road if desired.

It is stated that a proposition has already been made the Janesville St.
Railway company to purchase their road and run it in connection with the new interurban line. The company has not yet been granted a franchise by the city of Beloit but intend having everything ready in case they do not get it so that the work can be rushed to completion.

RENTS NEW QUARTERS.

second hand business Mr. Cannon has made it a special point to handle only the best of goods. His business has

MRS. J. J. CUNNINGHAM LAMENTED IN DEATH

Responds to the Final Summons
After Only Two Days' Illness.

A bereavement that lacks none of the elements of a tragedy in the suddenness and force of the shock occurred in the death of Emma Lang-worthy Cunningham, wife of John J.
Cunningham. Her illness dates no further back than Tuesday and her death was as unexpected as a thunder-bolt out of a clear sky.

Decensed was the daughter of C. E.
Langworthy, one of the well-known names in the county. She was born at Fulton in 1873 and her early life was spent in that township. She was a pupil at the Edgerton high school and Albion academy and was a bright and proficient scholar. Later she came to Janesville and for a number of years was employed in the store of J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Last June she became the wife of J. J. Cunningham and their life together had been unusually happy. They found a pleasant home in part of the Miner house on Court street and their future seemed to lack none of the essentials of happiness.

Mrs. Cunningham had a particularly amiable disposition and an attractive personality. She possessed many if not the most of the things that make life valuable and her sudden and untimely death is one of the mysteries beyond the skill of mortal insight to fathom.

Besides her father she leaves a step-mother, two brothers and one sister. Announcement of the funeral cannot be definitely made till friends in Missouri, New York and Ohio have been heard from.

THOMAS H. KYLE IS LIKELY TO RECOVER

Injured Northwestern Brakeman Passed a Comfortable Night—Stories as to His Injuries.

Thomas H. Kyle, the Northwestern brakeman who was so badly hurt at Jefferson Junction on Tuesday evening, passed a more comfortable night last night and there are now some hopes of his recovery. Several ribs were broken and other internal injuries sustained by him.

Kyle was one of the most popular brakemen on the north end and had just gone to work after a four weeks' lay off with a sore arm caused by vaccination, when he was hurt.

There are several different stories as to how he came to be injured. He was head brakeman on train No. 582 in charge of Conductor McCaffrey.
The train was on its way south from Fond du Lac and had reached Jefferson Junction. When they started to pull out the draw bar on the car next to the engine pulled out and Kyle stepped in between the car and the engine to examine it unbeknown to the engineer who let off the air brakes.

When the air was let off the cars slacked ahead and caught Kyle before he could get out of danger. He was discovered by Conductor McCaffrey, who had gone ahead to see what was wrong and released from between the car and engine.

The engine was sent back to Jefferson and two doctors were soon on the scene. The injured man was taken to Jefferson and his father and mother were at once taken to his bedside.

While in this city Mr. Kyle roomed at the Y. M. C. A. building and was a popular young man.

Judge Brooks Known Here.

Judge Frank C. Brooks of Minneapolis, who will try Frank Hamilton for killing Leonard Day is an old Janesville boy and at one time was a teacher in the public schools of this city. He was a son of Oscar Brooks who at one time ran a gun store on North River street. Judge Brooks took up the study of law and after being admitted to practice was unusually successful. He went to Minneapolis and some time ago was elected to the position that he now holds.

Author of Meritorious Works.

Prof. Moses Coit Tyler, who died recently in Boston, was the author of "History of American Literature During the Colonial Period" and "The Literary History of the American Revolution," both works of great merit.
Years ago he was one of the most popular platform orators in the East.

Doubtful Recommendation for Position.

A New York theatrical manager lately received a letter of introduction which described the presenter as an ambitious young actor of much merit—an all-around player. It thus concluded: "He plays Macbeth, Richelieu, Hamlet, Shylock and billiards.
He plays billiards best."

Arizona Hopes for Statehood.

Governor Murphy of Arizona hopes that the territory will be admitted to statehood soon. If the territory is not admitted, says the governor, it will be due mainly to the indifference of men who have made fortunes in the territory and who think they can wield more influence over a territorial than a state legislature.

erts of Janesville will be sent to the senate by Governor La Follette tomorrow morning for state veterinarian in place of the present incumbent. It seems that the law provides that this appointment must be made within twenty days after the legislature meets. This not having been done

Residence Furnace Explosion.

Yesterday there was a furnace explosion at the home of the Misses but did no more damage than could be repaired in a few hours. Fortunately the ladies were at home when it took place. The furnace has been in use constantly for the past eight

Afton Wants Electric Road.

Charles Waite of Afton was in the city today. Mr. Waite says that a determined effort is being made by the people of Afton to have the Janesville and Beloit electric railroad run through the village. It will be to the interests of the road to take in Afton, and Mr.
Waite thinks there are good prospects of the road going through there. A number of farmers have said they would donate the right of way along their farms if the road would take the route proposed by the people of the village.
It would be quite advantageous to Afton to get this line between the two cities, as it would give car service every hour and at a low rate.

PRINCE TUAN IS SAVED.

Six Chinese Officials, However, Must Die.

THREE TO BE BANISHED.

Three Who Are Dead Will Receive Posthumous Death Sentences—Chinese Agree to Enforce Actual Executions—Bad Record of Some of the Leaders.

Peking, Feb. 7.—All objections raised by Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching regarding the punishments demanded by the representatives of the powers have now been cleared. The proposition submitted by the Chinese envoys at yesterday's conference was formally agreed to today, the ministers of the powers replying without further delay that they would readily accept these terms, according to which the three chief culprits escape the death penalty. Prince Tuan, Duke Lan and Gen. Tung Fuh Siang will be sentenced to "documentary" execution, and will be committed to life banishment. Tung Fuh Siang will go unpunished until it becomes possible to detach him from the army.

Three Are Already Dead.

Ying Nien, Hsu Tung and Kang Yi, three officials already dead, will receive posthumous death sentences. Six genuine executions will take place, among them, that of Yu Hsien, governor of Shansi province, the chief offender among a lot of small fry. Posthumous honors will be paid four murdered members of the tsung-li-yamen.

To Enforce Actual Execution.

The ministers are now preparing a note to be presented to the Chinese envoys for their signatures, which will constitute a formal ratification of the above details. Thereupon the Chinese agree to enforce as soon as possible by means of imperial decrees the actual executions.

Tuan's Many Offenses.

Prince Tuan, the principal instigator of the troubles into which he dragged the Chinese government, who was appointed president of the tsung-li-yamen after giving advice to the Chinese government, who was responsible for the edict against foreigners issued between June 30 and Aug. 10 and was mainly responsible for the massacres in the provinces, especially Shansi, who ordered the troops to attack the legations in opposition to the advice of high mandarins who were looking to a cessation of hostilities; who secured the execution of members of tsung-li-yamen who were favorable to foreigners; who is the recognized author of the ultimatum of June 19 directing the diplomatic corps to leave Peking within twenty-four hours and who ordered before the expiration of this delay firing upon all foreigners found upon the streets of the capital and who was practically the author of the assassination of Baron Ketteler, the German minister.

Duke Lan, vice-president of the police, who was accessory to the giving of orders for the capture of foreigners and was the first to open the gates of the city to the Boxers.

Ying Nien, who was accomplice of Prince Chuang and Duke Lan in their machinations.

Kang Yi's Bad Record.

Kang Yi, one of the instigators and counselors of the Boxers, who always protected them and was most hostile to any understanding looking to the re-establishment of peaceful relations with foreigners, who was sent at the commencement of June to meet the Boxers and endeavor to deter them from entering the city, but who, on the contrary, encouraged them to follow the work of destruction, and who signed, with Prince Tuan and Ying Nien, their principal notices and prepared the plan for the expulsion and annihilation of foreigners in the provinces of the empire.

Chao Su Kiam, a member of the grand council and also minister of justice, who was one of the leaders against the foreigners and mainly responsible for the execution of the officials killed during the siege for having tried to stop the attack against the legations, and who tendered the Boxers every encouragement.

Yu Hsien, the Assassin.

Yu Hsien, who reorganized the Boxers, was the author of the massacre in the Shansi province and assassinated with his own hand foreigners and missionaries, and who was noted for cruelty which stained with blood the whole country over which he was governor.

Gen. Tung Fuh Siang, who, with Prince Tuan, carried out in Peking the plans against the foreigners and who commanded the attacks on the legations and the soldiers who assassinated the Japanese chancellor.

Li Ping Heng, who used his influence to have the Boxers recognized as loyal and patriotic men and who led the government to use them with the object of the extermination of the foreigners.

Hsu Tung, who has always been one of the officials most hostile to foreigners, who praised the Boxers, of whom he was an accomplice, who used all his influence with high persons in the empire, being tutor to the heir apparent.

Hsu Chen Yu, who has the same responsibility.

Kih Sfa, one of the officials most hostile to foreigners and the minister at the rites of service of the Boxers.

The Rev. W. S. Ament Released.

The Rev. W. S. Ament, the agent of the American congressional board of missions, who was arrested by the French authorities at Tung Chow and charged with collecting exorbitant indemnities, has been released and an investigation of the matter is being carried on through diplomatic channels. Mr. Ament, who is at Tung Chow, has wired Minister Conger: "Guard with drawn. Our people vindicated. Send an officer to ask explanations."

MANY PERISH IN OIL FIRE.

Great Conflagration in Russia—Four Hundred Families Homeless.

Daku, Russian Transcaucasia, Feb. 7.—A fire broke out yesterday in the magazine of the Caspian and Black Sea company, which contained 6,000,000 pounds of petroleum. The conflagration resulted in great loss of life and widespread damage.

The flames spread to other depots, having a capacity of 12,000,000 pounds of naphtha, which poured out like a stream of lava, inundating and setting fire to the dwellings of the workmen, which were totally destroyed. Many persons perished. Twenty charred bodies have been found and upward of fifty people are terribly burned. Four hundred families lost everything they possessed and are homeless.

The magazines are still burning and neighboring reservoirs are in great danger. A general panic prevails. Eight naphtha springs belonging to the Melikoff, Ralski and Caspian companies caught fire Feb. 3.

Special Venue for Hamilton.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 7.—The regular panel having been exhausted a special venire of fifty was summoned for the jury in the trial of Frank H. Hamilton for the murder of Leonard R. Day this morning. One after another the veniremen were called to the stand, examined and excused for actual or implied bias. Most of them had read newspaper accounts and formed an opinion which they thought it would be difficult to change. The defense was obliged to use a peremptory challenge to keep a Scandinavian named Lagerstrom off the jury. All the men selected so far are American born and the lawyers on both sides seem bent on keeping up this record. The prisoner continues in the best of health and spirits.

For Uniformity in Mining.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 7.—When the joint convention of coal miners and operators met today it had under consideration a resolution offered by J. A. Moorehead instructing the scale committee to prepare an agreement to cover the price of pick and machine mining in the competitive field based on lines of uniformity. When it is known that the Illinois operators have been entering vigorous protests against being the only state in the territory that is compelled to work the run-of-mine system it will be seen that the object of the resolution is to place all operators on the same basis in that regard to all things, especially the run of mine.

Blow to Cereal Combination.

Akron, Ohio, Feb. 7.—A perpetual injunction was granted today against a combination of the cereal companies. Two years ago the American Cereal company attempted to increase its capital from $3,500,000 to $33,000,000. It was proposed at the time to form a combination of 95 per cent of the mills in the country. Mrs. Nellie L. Hower, a stockholder, secured a temporary injunction against the combination on the ground that it was a scheme to freeze out the small stockholders and a violation of the Ohio anti-trust laws. Today the injunction was made permanent.

SENATE IN NIGHT SESSION.

Working Overtime Stirs Up Some Members.

PUSHING THE SUBSIDY BILL.

Senator Jones Asserts That the Shipping Bill Is Perfectly Detestable—The Senate Passes the Revenue Bill—Wright to Be Labor Commissioner.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The senate began evening sessions last night for the purpose of disposing of the ship-subsidy bill. Senator Hanna who is leading the fight in favor of the measure was taken ill in the morning with lumbago and was confined to his bed, his physicians saying he must remain indefinitely. Mr. Hanna managed to reach the chamber in time to make a quorum. Mr. Jones (Ark.) entered a passionate protest against the consideration of the pending bill at night sessions. He declared such action involved a deliberate purpose to break down opposition senators physically and prevent the passage of the appropriation bills. The shipping bill, he asserted, was the most perfectly detestable measure presented to the senate for years, and part of a great scheme to place all transportation facilities under one control. "I believe," he said, "that this bill proposes to place our commerce of the seas under the control of the men who now are trying to get the land transportation routes by the throat. So help me high heaven," he shouted passionately, "I will not be a party to this effort to throttle free speech. We give you notice, if you will have night sessions that you must have a quorum here all the time, as we do not propose to contribute in any way to a tyrannical effort to suppress free speech by brute force."

Criticism Action of the Minority.

"We are perfectly willing to have every measure fully and freely debated," said Mr. Aldrich (R. I.). "All we ask of you is that, after full discussion you shall permit a vote to be taken. The threat of the senator from Arkansas is that for the first time in our history, the minority proposes to kill a bill by filibustering. We ask you that, according to all traditions and precedents of the senate you will allow a vote to be taken upon the measure."

Extra Session Not Necessary.

A member of the cabinet stated today that the failure of congress to pass the Spooner bill or otherwise enlarge executive authority in the Philippines would not be considered by the president sufficient cause for an extra session.

The war-revenue reduction bill was passed in the senate. Few amendments were made, the more important being those urged by the Chicago board of trade, which scored a distinct victory over the New York produce exchange by having the tax on bucket-shop transactions in merchandise doubled, and placed at 2 cents on each $100 of face value of merchandise dealt in, and in having the tax on board of trade transactions cut in half, the amendment as adopted providing a tax of 1 cent per $200, instead of 1 cent per $100. This gives board of trade transactions the benefit of a tax one-fourth as large as that imposed upon bucket shops. In explaining the senate bill Mr. Aldrich, chairman of the committee on finance, stated that the estimates he had made placed the reductions in revenues proposed by the bill at $39,800,000, whereas the commissioner of internal revenue estimates that the reductions would be $1,000,000 greater, and about $800,000 in excess of the house estimate of the reductions proposed in its bill. The senate also passed the military academy appropriation bill. The only change made in it was the strengthening of the provision against hazing at West Point.

Work on Postoffice Bill.

The house gave another day to the discussion of the postoffice appropriation bill, most of the time being devoted to the consideration of the pay to railroads for hauling the mail.

Nominations by the President.

The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Carroll D. Wright of Massachusetts, to be commissioner of labor; Oscar Malmros of Minnesota, to be consul at Colon, Colombia; Edward P. Seeds of Iowa, to be deputy auditor for the war department; John E. Pelton of Colorado, receiver of public moneys at Montrose, Col.

Accused of Aiding Insurgents.

Manila, Feb. 7.—Theodoro Carranza, a prominent and wealthy Spanish merchant and hemp and cocoanut buyer, and his partner, D. M. Carman, were arrested charged with furnishing supplies to aid the insurgents. Carman is an American contractor and owner of boats, who had considerable transportation contracts with the government.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 7.—In a head-end freight collision on the Illinois Central at Ripley, Tenn., Engineer James Wilson, Water Valley, Miss., was killed and Herbert Morrison, fireman, and a tramp were fatally injured. Twenty cars and both engines were wrecked. Seventeen years ago a wreck occurred at exactly the same spot and four persons were killed.

COLONIAL COTTAGE.

Designed to Combine Beauty With Utility—Costs $3,200 to Build.

This attractive colonial design is very conveniently planned, with a large reception hall ornamented by a platform staircase with carved newels and turned balusters. The parlor has four large windows and an open fireplace fitted up with a hard wood mantel and with tile hearth and facings.

The dining room is, as it should be, the lightest and pleasantest room in the house. It is circular on one end, is lighted by six large windows and has an open fireplace.

fireplace. This room is trimmed in antique quartered oak. The walls are covered with burlap of a deep maroon shade, and the ceiling is tinted in colors to blend nicely with the side walls. The floor is a neat design of parquet flooring. The pantry is provided with a china closet of good size. The kitchen has all the modern improvements.

ern improvements. In the entry at the rear of the house is a servant's water closet.

The second floor is nicely arranged with a large hall, three large bedrooms and a bath, which is neatly fitted up with open nickel plumbing and tile floor and wainscoting. There is also ample closet room on this floor.

The attic has three large finished rooms and an open attic.

The cemented cellar is provided with coal bins and a furnace. The underpin-

Boys' Belongings.

There are numerous possessions that are very dear to a boy's heart—his bats and balls, his fishing tackle, his tennis racket, his tops and marbles, his—well, who can name all the possessions that are dear to a boy's heart?

When the boy has no place in particular in which to bestow his belongings, says a writer in The Ladies' World, he is apt to pre-empt quarters wherever it suits his convenience, often to the no small disturbance of orderly housekeeping.

Now, give the boy a chance to be orderly and see if he won't live up to his opportunities. It will be much better for the habits he is forming and considerably better for the one who is trying to keep her house orderly.

Make the boy a locker, where he can keep all his possessions, and locate it in the laundry, the back hall or in some other place so that he won't have to tear through the house every time he wants one or another of his playthings.

Woman's Cozy Corner.

If you cannot afford a really good couch, says a writer in the Boston Globe, with the best springs and upholstery, I should advise you to purchase a regular cot bed; with woven wire springs and a good mattress. This cot bed, with the legs sawed off a little to make it stand lower and two light boards nailed on either side to keep the mattress from slipping, makes really the best foundation for a cozy corner that I know of.

Purchase a bagged to throw over it for a spread. Some people object to the cot because it has no back. This difficulty may be removed by making several (two or three) quite large pillows of strong ticking and stuffing stiffly full of excelsior. Stand them up at the back against the wall to serve as a back. Pile the rest of the pillows you should have been at work upon ever since you first thought of having a cozy corner.

Home Matters.

To clean unvarnished black walnut rub it with a soft flannel cloth which has been wrung out of either sweet or sour milk.

Upon opening the house in the fall every drain should be flushed thoroughly with water, and hot water should be allowed to run freely.

To remove any dish from a mold when cold wrap a hot cloth about the outside of the mold for a minute or two. To remove a hot dish wrap a cold cloth about it.

Defeat City Ownership Plan.

Grayville, Ill., Feb. 7.—The proposition to buy the Grayville water works for $22,700 and to levy a tax of 1 per cent for twenty years was defeated at a special election yesterday by 49 votes.

Land Lubbers' Mutiny at Sea.

New York, Feb. 7.—Mutiny on the high seas among the crew of the Astral caused that four-masted steel sailing ship to turn about in the face of a southeast gale Sunday night and return to this port. While she lay at anchor outside Sandy Hook bar today warrants were issued for the arrest of the crew. Laden with 1,400,000 gallons of oil destined for Shanghai, China, the Astral was the first of the Standard Oil company's new fleet of sailing vessels to fly the American flag. Under Captain Dunham was a crew of twenty-three men. They refused to go to sea, but were willing to take the ship back, it is said that seven had never made a deep-water voyage. The rest consisted of stokers, beach combers and farmers.

Collection of American Poetry.

Professor Koopman, librarian of Brown university, attended the sale of the famous private library of Thomas J. McKee of New York, and through funds supplied by Chancellor William Goddard was able to purchase the books necessary to complete the Harris collection of American poetry now in the possession of the university and the best of its kind extant.

SUPERSTITION.

Has been responsible for much of human mortality. Men and women die by thousands in an Indian famine, not because of lack of food but because caste superstition prevents them from accepting it. Even in America there are still to be found those who believe that healing herbs lack virtue unless gathered during certain phases of the moon.

The great foe of superstition is science. Every year science increases the territory of the natural at the expense of the supernatural.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery achieves its successful cures because it is a scientific preparation originated by a scientific man. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and establishes the body in sound health.

As the writer of the following letter says, "It is the best thing for nervousness and for a weak run-down condition that anybody would want. It gives a person new life and new blood."

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and is free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

"I must again send a few lines to you to let you know how I am getting along since taking the wonderful medicine which cured me two years ago," writes Miss Beulah Ebel, of 1416 Benton Street, St. Louis, Mo. "I still continue in very good health and think there is not a better medicine on earth than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the best thing for nervousness and for a weak run-down condition, that anybody would want. It gives a person new life and new blood. I can now work all day long without feeling the least bit tired. I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it just made me feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

New Faces IN THE Senate

Some of the Men Who Have Won Membership In the Next Upper House

Unless the president calls an extra session of congress between March 4 and the first Monday of December next the latter date will witness the first assembling of the Fifty-seventh congress. In the house of representatives there will be as usual many changes of membership, since the lower body is large and sensitive to political change. But even in the senate there will be several new faces. The chair of the president of this august worked as a printer and then studied law. In 1872 he went to Colorado. Since then he has been active and prominent in state politics, serving as a delegate to congress before Colorado was admitted to statehood. He has also been a representative. Mr. Patterson is a quiet, reserved man and possesses a keen, active, retentive mind.

One of South Dakota's two representatives at large, Robert Jackson Gamble, has been elected to succeed Senator Pettigrew. Mr. Gamble is a native of New York state and a lawyer by profession. He is a fine looking, scholarly man and has held various minor offices besides serving two terms in the lower house as a Republican. Senator Ellet Gamble was reared on a Wisconsin farm and taught school while attending college. He has gained the reputation of being thoroughly conversant with national affairs and of being a hard worker.

Edward Ward Carmack of Tennessee will be another journalist-senator. Mr. Carmack is 42 years old and has been a member of the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth congresses. He studied law, but abandoned that profession for newspaper work. Mr. Carmack has been connected with various papers in Nashville and Memphis. His influence on the state as editor of some of its leading papers has been great, and he has also been considered one of the leaders of the house minority during the past two congresses.

Senator Baker of Kansas will retire with the present congress, and his place will be taken by another Republican, Joseph Ralph Burton of Abilene. Mr. Burton is a native of Indiana, a lawyer, and is said to have few equals as an orator. He has served his state in the legislature and as a World's fair commissioner in 1893. Mr. Burton was an unsuccessful candidate for the senatorial toga five years ago. He lost the election by one vote in the joint caucus, being defeated by the man whom he is body will of course be vacated by Senator Frye, who has filled it since the death of Vice President Hobart. On Dec. 2 the veteran from Maine will resign his gavel to Vice President Roosevelt.

Davis of Minnesota, one of the best known senators, has been removed by death. His seat is to be filled by Moses E. Clapp, formerly the attorney general of his state. Senator Ellet Clapp is 49 years old and a Hoosier by birth. When he was 7 years old, his parents removed to Wisconsin, where the future senator was educated. He was admitted to the bar in 1873 and located in St. Paul in 1880. Mr. Clapp has long been politically prominent in Minnesota. He has gained a reputation as an orator and is familiarly known as "The Black Eagle of Minnesota."

Another of the veterans to go is Chandler of New Hampshire, who failed of re-election. He will be succeeded by Judge Henry E. Burnham, who has risen to the senatorship through various minor offices. He is 50 years of age and a graduate of Dartmouth. Judge Burnham gained his title by service as probate judge of Hillsboro county. He was a member of the New Hampshire house of representatives in 1873-4 and also at the time of his election as a United States senator. Like his confrere of Minnesota, Judge Burnham is a noted speaker. He is of course a Republican.

Chilton of Texas after one term in the senate gives way to Joseph Weldon Bailey, the young man of 37 who has been the Democratic leader in the house. He is a tall, handsome, studious man and has served five terms in the house of representatives, a very good record for so young a man. On the organization of the Fifty-fifth congress in March, 1897, Mr. Bailey was honored by his fellow members of the Democratic minority with their nomination to the speakership. Mr. Bailey is also possessed of a "silver tongue." Wolcott of Colorado is going and is said to have diplomatic aspirations. His seat in the senate is to be filled by the fusion candidate, Thomas M. Patterson, a well known lawyer and journalist of the Centennial State. "Tom" Patterson, locally so known, is a native of Ireland and came to this country when he was 9 years old. He now to succeed. Mr. Burton is considered probably the best dressed man in Kansas.

Murphy James Foster, Louisiana's new senator, has the distinction of succeeding his cousin, Donelson Caffery. It is rather strange that Senator Foster and his predecessor should be bitter political enemies while thus related. Senator Foster has been governor of Louisiana since 1892 and attracted national attention by his fight against the Louisiana state lottery. It was, in fact, as an avowed anti-lottery candidate that he made his closely contested and successful fight for the governorship. He is a Democrat.

Hop Picking in England.

It requires a great many hands and has to be carried through quickly. As soon as the time arrives the East Londoners by the thousand give up their work and take the train to the hopping. Then they have the finest time imaginable. They are quite free from any interference. No one watches over them. All day long they are out in the fields. They are paid, and paid well, by the basket. Therefore they work hard. In the evening they have games entirely of their own devising. There is no lady to watch the girls; no young university man goes with fists let loose upon the lads; mousie is plentiful; suppers are copious; beer flows in streams; they dance and sing at their sweet will.

The farmers, so long as they do no mischief to the crops and orchards, do not interfere. At night the girls sleep in one barn and the lads and men in another. When hopping is over, they come back to town. Like Bottom, they are transformed. Their cheeks, which were pasty colored, are now rosy and sunburned. They are no longer the children of the curb. They have been adopted for the time by the field. How they get back to work I do not know, but I believe that in many factories the employers look forward to the hopping desecrations and make arrangements accordingly.—Sir Walter Besant in Century.

NEW WOMAN
BY ELIZA
ARCHARD
CONNER

A lawsuit which is one of the most important to women that have ever been on in Connecticut is now pending in the courts of that state. Nearly a generation ago Connecticut passed a married woman's property act giving to wives all real or personal estate inherited by them after marriage. Up to that time a wife's inheritance belonged by law to her husband. A law giving a wife her own would have disturbed the existing status of vested rights if it had applied to wives whose husbands had taken possession of their property previous to the passing of this act. In order, therefore, not to disturb vested rights the new law stipulated that its provisions should apply only to women married after 1877. Three or four years ago, full 20 after the passage of the married woman's property act, a wife inherited some money. The property had not been hers or in consequence her husband's at the time of the passage of the law. There was no reason at that time to believe it ever would be hers. Undoubtedly by right it was hers absolutely. But she had been married previous to 1877, hence under the law there seemed a reasonable claim that her husband could put forth to the inheritance. It brought a new question up in the courts, a question of interpretation of the law as between equity and legal technicality, and that is the point now being argued in the Connecticut courts. The suit is more interesting from the fact that the plaintiff, who is the wife suing for her own inheritance, has employed women lawyers to defend her case, thus presenting a unique situation, which only a woman judge is wanting to make complete. The leading attorney for the plaintiff is Miss S. C. O'Neill of Waterbury, who is a member of her father's law firm. Her associate counsel is Miss Isabella Mary Pettus, a lecturer in the women's law class of the University of New York.

Educated, experienced and level headed women seem especially to be appreciated in the west as state superintendents of public schools. Mrs. Helen M. Greenfield has been re-elected to this post in Colorado and Miss Pearl French in Idaho. Speaking of Miss French, the governor of Idaho says, "She is the best superintendent the state ever had." It is safe to say these two ladies do not sit like mummies or dummies at the annual meeting of the State Teachers' association and let 15 men do all the talking and transact all the business for 300 women.

The Colorado house of representatives has one woman member this time. Mrs. Evangeline Hertz. You and I will yet live to see women members in the congress of the United States.

An omnibus drawn by two powerful horses was conveying home a party that had been to an evening entertainment. All at once the vehicle began to roll on at fearful speed and to sway from side to side as though it was about to be dashed to pieces. The party inside looked out through a window in front and saw that the coachman had been thrown from his seat, that the horses were running away and the reins which had controlled them were dragging upon the ground. They were bound to be dragged and dashed to death, it seemed. There was a man inside, but he could not do anything. All the women began to scream like idiots—all but one, that is. She was Miss Bailey, a Kentucky blue grass girl, who had been accustomed to horses all her life and feared nothing equine. She crawled through the window of the omnibus in front, braced herself against the footboard, leaned far out over the horses at the risk of her life and caught one of the trailing lines. This she pulled on with all the power of young blue grass muscle and drew the horses up short against a bank, saving all the people's lives. Then the women who had screamed and frightened the mad horses still more crawled out in safety.

Robert Grant promulgated the theory that all the old type of women who lived in their affections were liars, that they would falsify any time to save those they loved and consider it a virtuous credit to them. He did not believe the new woman would go so far as this, but he thought even she could not resist the temptation to smuggle and think it no harm. He says: "Even today, when woman is the cynosure of an attentive world, it is well recognized that five out of six of our wives and sisters would take a false oath, if tempted, in order to escape the payment of custom house duties on smuggled fineries." Do you suppose this is true?

"To love, to suffer, to devote herself, to sacrifice herself for those she loves, such is the lot of woman and will be while the world lasts," wrote a famous romancer. Well, hardly, not in our time any more. Woman begins to find out that it is not wise or righteous to sacrifice herself too far even for her own children, after she has got them beyond the measles and school days. She has a soul of her own to save, powers of her own to develop. If she does not do it here and now, she will have to do it elsewhere, some say in another incarnation upon this planet.

with magnificent antique lace. The trails are covered with embroidery almost meeting at the waist and broadening over to the hem. The court train is two and a half yards long, the embroidery running around it in light trails.

Grays, Blues and Whites.

The gowns of the queen's trainees are mostly pale greens, grays, blues and whites, these suiting her blonde complexion best. Her bonnets are of a severe style for a young woman, most of them being close fitting toques, instead of the broad brimmed hats worn by most girls.

Royal Robe of White Velvet.

For her public entering into Amsterdam her majesty has a royal robe of white velvet, with a train trimmed with ermine and a mantle lined with ermine. At one of the receptions in Amsterdam after the honeymoon she will wear a gown of white satin, embroidered around the hem and bodice with a small tracery of oranges and leaves and a court train of rich orange velvet lined with white silk.

Gov. Nash Is Determined.

Columbus, O., Feb. 7.—Jeffries and Rubin will not fight at Cincinnati. Gov. Nash has settled that question. He summoned the state emergency board into special session to have it authorize an expenditure of $50,000 to send a regiment of the national guard to Cincinnati to prevent the contest.

Another Victim of Plague.

Hull, Feb. 7.—A steward of the British steamer Friary, recently from Alexandria, Egypt, died from the plague today. This makes the total number of deaths among the ship's crew from the plague seven.
